WHY NOT BECOME A PATRON OF OUR COMPANY

We are looking for patrons/sponsors who will support The Unknown Theatre Company into the millennium. Why not consider becoming an Honorary President for £50 per annum or an Honorary Vice President for £25 per annum. The period of office runs from 1st April 2000 to 31st March 2001. Honorary presidents receive 2 free tickets for each of our shows performed during the year, whilst Honorary Vice Presidents receive 1 free ticket. You will be given priority booking for yourself and your guests and will be acknowledged in our programmes. We are also looking for corporate sponsorship. Please contact Jane on 01222 473202 for further details.

Victor Atkins

Vic has been with the Unknown Theatre Company for their last four productions. He has had a varied stage career with many different societies. In the last year his credits have included The Biograph Girl, Fame, Chess, Half a Sixpence, Les Musical and Pride and Prejudice. He directed Agnes of God which was awarded Best Production at the South Glamorgan Drama League Peripatetic Festival. His next production with R.A.T.S. is 'Allo 'Allo in Jan 2000.

Matthew Brind

Matthew is a talented young musician currently studying in Cardiff. He teaches piano lessons in his spare time and is building up a good reputation with a number of local societies. He is working on a project for HTV and has recently completed a musical called the Messiah. He has been commissioned to write the music for the Unknown Theatre Company's millennium project.
