The Unknown Theatre Company

In March of this, our first year of being, I was approached by parents of children I had started to teach at a local Stage School. The feeling amongst them was that there were not enough performing opportunities, purely for youngsters, in the area. Indeed the talent is there, as we are sure you will see during this evening's performance. Based on this need, a little over 7 months ago, The Unknown Theatre Company was formed.

We had an overwhelming response to our audition call for Pirates, Indians, Lost Boys and, of course, the Darling family and Peter Pan which led to over one hundred and fifty people vying for their place in the final cast. There was only one stipulation...they had to be under seventeen.

But why The Unknown Theatre Company? We hear you cry. Quite simple. At first it was the theatre company which was unknown but, after having only been up and running for less than a year, our name is beginning to spread very quickly. Yet it is the children who are the important factor in our equation and the decision to name ourselves was based on the fact that all the children who will tread the boards of our productions are, at the moment, unknown.

There are just so many individuals and organisations to thank it would be impossible to list them all and for fear of missing anyone out I don't think I can bring myself to do it anyway! I would simply like to take this opportunity to thank EVERYONE who has helped along the way to make Peter Pan possible.

For the children performing it is a dream come true. I hope you will let them take you on their magical journey and I look forward to welcoming you to future Unknown Theatre Company productions.

David Lawrence
Musical Director

There is one organisation without whose financial input this project would not have been possible, and we would like to thank them personally for all they have done for us.
