

The Unknown Theatre Company presents:

Telling Tales

Dancing on Checkers' Grave
by Eric Lane

Sure Thing
by David Ives

Two short plays about new relationships

7.30pm, Saturday 28th April 2007

Roath Church House
Waterloo Road
Cardiff

www.unknowntheatre.co.uk

Dancing on Checkers' Grave by Eric Lane

Lisa
Dina

Anna Patricolo
Alex Wood

Sure Thing by David Ives

Betty
Bill

Kelly Littlechild
Andrew Machin

There will be an interval of 15 minutes between the two plays.

Director Assisted by

Lon David
Kelly Littlechild (Set, Checkers)
Kim Littlechild (Percussion, Sure Thing)

Producer Assisted by Technical Director

Jane Donoghue
Annette Littlechild & Steven Donoghue
Lucy Chiplin

Director's notes:

Thanks to everyone at Unknown Theatre for letting me try something new - again - and for working so hard to pull it all together. The plays you see this evening have not had the easiest of rehearsal periods, but thanks to everyone's dedication and commitment, we did it! We come to you tonight fresh from our appearance at last week's Glamorgan Drama League's One-Act Play Festival, when Checkers won the Youth Award. Sure Thing was too short to be a formal entry, but the Adjudicator praised the production in her overview of the Festival, remarking on how much everyone had enjoyed it.

So now it's your turn. Thank you for supporting The Unknown Theatre Company and we hope you enjoy the show.

Thanks to Eric Lane, Geraldine Roberts, Brian Shapcott and all at Roath Church House, St Phillips, Glamorgan Drama League, and Drama Association of Wales.

Our next show: Duffryn Gardens Sunday, June 24 2007 at 7.30pm
From Wales to the West End - A Celebration of 10 years of success!
Come join us as we celebrate our 10th anniversary ...

